MONEY TRANSMITTER FORM 399-G-AR

2006 NH ANNUAL REPORT - GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Information provided in this form is aggregated and an analysis is published by the New Hampshire Bank Commissioner in his Annual Report to the Governor and Executive Council. The accuracy of the information is also important because it will be used by the New Hampshire Banking Department ("the department") if assessment calculations are needed.
2. A Money Transmitter who surrenders its license during the 2006 calendar year must file this annual report form, along with a NH License Surrender/Expiration Form, within 15 days from the date the company ceases business in New Hampshire.
3. All Money Transmitters continuing to be licensed in accordance with NH RSA 399-G or whose license expired on December 31, 2006 and who were licensed during any period of time during the preceding calendar year must complete and file this report with the department on or before February 1st of the ensuing year. All annual reports for calendar year 2006 must be received by the department on or before the close of business on Thursday, February 1, 2007.
4. All items on the form must be completed; do not leave any blanks. Reports with blanks are incomplete and will be deemed as "not filed" for purposes of any penalty. If an item is not applicable to business conducted by the licensee, enter "N/A", "none", "O", or "zero".
5. SAVE YOUR CALCULATIONS. Work papers used to calculate and compile the information required by this form must be retained and made available when the licensee is examined by the department.
6. This report must be filed if a license was held for a portion of the reporting year and must be filed even if no money transmission transactions were made. The original report, signed under penalty of unsworn falsification pursuant to NH RSA 641:3, must be physically delivered to the department; we cannot accept fax transmissions of reports. Failure to file the annual report or late filing of the annual report results in a statutory penalty of $25 per day for each day the report is overdue.
7. No fee is required to file this annual report.
8. Information in this report must be provided for the amount of money transmission business conducted by the licensee from all business locations in New Hampshire and from any other location or method, including the Internet, where the company sold or issued payment instruments or stored value to persons in NH, or received money or monetary value from persons in NH for transmission to from one location to another location, during calendar year 2006.
